For the Hungry, Raising Awareness = Action. We are the Relief.

Unfortunately, the reality today is this: More than 13.3 million people are in crisis in the Horn of Africa. That's a staggering number. But we, using our collective voice and action, can make a difference. By raising awareness within our communities—be it by participating in community walks, hosting house parties, posting blogs, or simply forwarding the facts to friends and family—we can all make an impact.
