Redeeming Vouchers for Inputs

Submitted by kdad on January 16, 2015

Alex Moamah (center) leads fellow farmers in a group discussion about a USAID voucher program for vegetable farmers.

The flyer he's holding shows farmers the steps they need to take to redeem the program's vouchers, worth $80, at several agro-input dealers in the area.

Each farmer is expected to match the investment to receive a 50 kilogram bag of fertilizer, seeds, pesticides and other inputs.

Alex is a lead farmer at the Mawah Farmers Association in Liberia.
