U.S. Ambassadors' Visit Focused on Food Security, Child Nutrition

LA PAZ, Honduras—On December 12, U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations in Rome Ertharin Cousin and U.S. Ambassador to Honduras Lisa Kubiske visited food security programs financed by the United Nations and U.S. Government agencies. During their trip to La Paz, both Ambassadors visited local health clinics, as well as household and commercial sites involved in growing vegetables to learn more about production and commercialization of local produce.
