USAID Administrator Shah Meets with President of Ghana

Administrator Shah met with the President of Ghana, John Atta Mills, to highlight USAID's strong commitment to Ghana's Partnership for Growth and agricultural development through the Feed the Future initiative. Feed the Future is the U.S. Government's global hunger and food security initiative.

USAID and the Ghanaian government are working together to generate prosperity and security for both the Ghanaian and the American people by increasing agricultural production, employment opportunities, and income for the poor; improving the quality of health services and education; and strengthening local government institutions.
